TITLE V.

CONSTITUTION.

An Act to alter the sixth Section, of the third Article of the constitution of this State, so far as relates to the day on which the Ordinaries are elected.*

(No. 12.)

1. Section I. The General Assembly of the State of Georgia do enact, That so soon as this Act shall have been passed, in conformity to the requirements of the Constitution, the sixth Section of the third Article of the Constitution, be so altered as to substitute the word “Wednesday,” for the word “Monday,” where the same occurs in said Section.

Assented to December 1st, 1860.

Passed first time.

*The time of electing Ordinaries, having been fixed by the Constitution, could not be changed from Mondays to Wednesdays by legislative enactment merely; as has been done with other County officers; hence this proposed change in the Constitution. See amended Constitution, Acts of 1851-2, p. 50.
An Act to alter and amend the first Article of the Constitution, relative to granting corporate powers and privileges.

2. Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Georgia, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same, That the first Article of the Constitution be, and the same is hereby amended, by adding the following words, to-wit:

"The Legislature shall have no power to grant corporate powers and privileges, except Banking, Telegraph, Rail Roads, Cities and Towns; but said powers shall be exercised exclusively by the Superior and Inferior Courts of the several Counties, as may be hereafter prescribed by law.

Assented to December 20th, 1860.

Passed first time.

NOTE.—During the Session of 1849-'50, several Acts proposing amendments to the Constitution were passed the first time, but which did not pass at the subsequent Session, and did not, therefore, become Constitutional amendments. Among them was an Act proposing "to add an additional Section to the 1st Art. of the Constitution," taking from the Legislature the power "to incorporate any Church, Academy School, Literary, Religious or Benevolent Society or Association, or any other Society or Association, Manufacturing Company, Military Company, Ice Company, Fire Company, Theatre Company, Hotel Company, Bridge or Ferry Company, to change the name of any persons, to legitimate illegitimate children, to change the places of holding precinct elections in the several counties, to incorporate towns, cities or villages, other than seaport towns, and ports of entry, to compensate grand or petit jurors," giving the power thus taken from the General Assembly, to the Superior and Inferior Courts, to be exercised in manner as the Legislature should by law direct.

Though this amendment did not meet the constitutional approval of the succeeding Legislature, yet at the Session of 1855-'6, an amendment did finally pass, and become a part of the Constitution, taking away from the Legislature and giving to the Superior or Inferior Courts, the power to change names, to legitimate persons, to make or change precincts, and to establish bridges and ferries; but the Legislature refused to relinquish the right of granting corporate powers and privileges.

But it is again proposed, by this Act, in a limited degree, to transfer powers to incorporate, to the Superior and Inferior Courts.

2. Sec. II. 3. Sec. III. 6. Sec. VI. That said Convention shall have power to elect all officers necessary to their organization; and to do all things necessary to carry out the true intent and meaning of this act, and the acts and purposes of said Convention.

TITLE VIII.

EDUCATION.

Sec. 1. Provisions for paying teachers of certain poor children.

An Act to define the manner in which Teachers of Poor Children must procceed to procure their pay, who have not returned, or who may hereafter fail to return their accounts to the Ordinary according to law.

Whereas, A great number of Special Bills are constantly introduced for the relief of Teachers of poor children in this State, who neglected to return their accounts to the Ordinary within the legal time; and whereas, it is probable Teachers will continue to neglect their duty.

Section 1. The Legislature of the State of Georgia therefore enacts, That from and after the passage of this Act, the teachers of poor children in this State, who have neglected to make their returns to the Ordinary according to law, and those who may hereafter neglect to so make their returns, and those who have taught, or may hereafter teach poor children not returned to the Ordinary, as such, by the proper authorities, shall, instead of applying as heretofore, to the Legislature for relief, to the great expense of the State, present their accounts, properly authenticated, to the Board of Education, (except the Ordinary,) established in each county by “An Act to alter and amend an Act, entitled an Act to provide for the education of the children of this State,” assented to Dec. the 21st, 1859; which Board of Education, or two thirds of said Board, shall, in their discretion, direct the Ordinary to pay off said accounts.

Watts, of Heard county, agent of David A. Mancer, for services rendered in teaching in the year 1858.

SEC. III. Repeals conflicting laws.
Assented to December 19th, 1860.

TITLE IX.

ELECTIONS.

Sec. 1. Act of Dec. 16th, 1859, amended, whereby elections of certain officers are to be held on first Wednesday, instead of first Monday, in January.

Sec. 2. Tax Collectors and Receivers of Tax Returns to be elected every two years; Vacancies, how filled.

Sec. 3. Collectors and Receivers to give bonds annually, as now required; if Receiver neglects his duty, Gov. may declare the office vacant, and vacancy may be filled as now required.

Sec. 4. Election precincts may be established, abolished or changed by, Infr. Court.

(No. 17.)

An Act to amend "an act to change the time of holding the elections for county officers, Judges of Superior Courts, Attorneys and Solicitors General, (except Ordinaries,) in this State," passed December 16th, 1859.*

1. Section I. Be it enacted, &c., That the first section of an Act entitled "An Act to change the time of holding the elections for county officers, Judges of the Superior Courts, Attorneys and Solicitors General, (except Ordinaries,) in this State," passed December 16th, 1859, be so amended as to read as follows: That after the year 1860, all elections of county officers, (except Ordinaries,) the election of the Judges of the Superior Courts, and Attorneys and Solicitors General, be held on the first Wednesday in January, instead of the first Monday in January, as now prescribed by law.

Assented to Nov. 24th, 1860.

* For this Act, see Acts of 1859, p. 32. The Act of 1859 enacted, "that, after the year 1860, the election for all county officers, Judges of the Superior Courts, Attorneys and Solicitors General, (except Ordinaries,) now held on the first Monday in January, be held on the first Wednesday in January, in each and every year;" and it was a question whether the Act did not change the term of office, (making all therein enumerated, for one year,) as well as the day on which the elections were to be held: and hence this enactment.
PUBLIC LAWS—Elections.

Receiver of Tax Returns and Tax Collectors—Election Precincts.

(No. 18.)

An Act to alter the time of holding the election of Receivers of Tax Returns, and Tax Collectors, in this State; to prescribe the mode in which they shall give bonds, and the mode in which the officers, (office?) of Receiver of Tax Returns, may be declared vacant.

2. Section I. Be it enacted, &c., That the Receiver of Tax Returns, and Tax Collector, in and for the several counties of this State, shall be elected at the same time that elections for other county officers are held, on the first Wednesday in January, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and every second year thereafter, and shall be commissioned by the Governor for the term of two years; and, in cases of vacancies in said offices, the same shall be filled by election, as provided in relation to other county offices.†

3. Sec. II. And be it further enacted, That the bonds of Receivers of Tax Returns, and (of Tax?) Collectors, shall be given with security, annually, as is now required by law, as to Collectors; and that, in the event it should become necessary for the Comptroller General to impose a fine on the Receiver of Tax Returns, for neglect, or unfaithful performance of duty, the Governor, if he thinks proper, may declare the office of Receiver of Tax returns vacant; and the vacancy may be filled as is now required by law in case of vacancies.

Sec. III. Repeals conflicting laws.

Assented to 6 December, 1860.

† Previous to this enactment, Tax Collectors and Receivers of Tax Returns were elected annually, and held their office for one year. See T. R. R. Cobb's New Digest, p. 260.

(No. 19.)

An Act to confer upon the Inferior Courts of the several counties in this State, power to establish, change or abolish any election precinct, or precincts, within the same.

Whereas, The fourth section of an Act, approved the sixth day of March, eighteen hundred and fifty-six,* entitled "An Act to prescribe the manner in which the names of persons may be changed," &c., is clearly unconstitutional, null and void:

4. Section I. Therefore, Be it enacted, That, from and after the passage of this Act, upon the petition of any person or persons to the Inferior Court of the county, praying the establishmet, abolition or change of any precinct or precincts within the same, it shall be lawful for said Inferior Court to establish, abolish or change such election precinct or precincts, agreeably to the provisions now established by law; any law, usage or custom to the contrary, notwithstanding.

Assented to Dec. 7th, 1860.

* See Acts of 1855-6, p. 261. The section above alluded to was clearly unconstitutional, on account of its variance from the title of the Act—Constitution of Georgia, Article I, Section XVII. T. R. R. Cobb's Dig., p. 1114.

the passage of this Act, His Excellency, the Governor, be, and he is hereby authorized to draw his warrant on the Treasury in favor of Leonard A. Simpson, of Cobb county, for three hundred and for-

11. Sec. II. Be it further enacted, That the Trustee shall manage said fund, with the advice of the Ordinary of the county in which said widow and children shall reside, in such manner as the Ordinary and Trustee shall think best for the welfare of said widow and children; and the Trustee shall make regular annual returns of all his actings and doings in such management as now provided by law for estates; all laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Act for the relief of Jeremiah H. Dupree, Receiver of Tax Returns in and for the county of Dooly.

WHEREAS, Jeremiah H. Dupree, of the county of Dooly, and State of Georgia, was the Receiver of Tax Returns, in and for said county of Dooly, for the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and having entered upon his duties as such, had performed said duty faithfully, so far as to have taken down all the persons liable to pay taxes in said county, with their property, value, &c., in terms of the law, had made out all his digests, except a small portion, late one Saturday night, placed the same away to be completed on Monday; on Sunday went over a short distance to attend Church, and during his short absence, his house, and all he possessed in it, as well as said digests of Tax Returns were burnt up by fire, with his said dwelling house, from some cause unknown to him, either by accident or otherwise, and he was compelled again to enter upon the same duty at once, and to perform the same service which he did in a faithful manner, riding almost incessantly night and day, seeing every person liable to pay taxes, retook them in due time, without delay, at great pains, labor, incessant toil, trouble to himself and injury to his horses, to accomplish his said work, which he did fully and properly accomplish; and whereas, it has always been the policy of this State to properly reward a faithful servant, and to relieve against the act of God or casual accidents over which the party could have no control, and not to have the faithful labor of a public servant for nothing, but where labor was actually performed, to reward it commensurate with the worth of that labor. Therefore,

13. SECTION I. Be it enacted &c., That the sum of two hundred dollars is hereby appropriated for the relief of said Jeremiah H. Dupree, the present Receiver of Tax Returns, in and for said county of Dooly, for the year eighteen hundred and sixty, the same being commensurate with the said services, by him rendered, as if he were taking in the Returns for the ensuing year, and such amount as he would have received for such services by law, and that His Excellency, the Governor, be authorized to draw his warrant on the Treasurer in favor of said Jeremiah H. Dupree for the same.

11. SECTION I. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Georgia, That the Governor be, and he is hereby ordered to draw his warrant on the Treasury, for the sum of ten dollars and sixty-four cents, to refund the same, to said Hiram L. Travis, which amount has been paid over to the State; and the same be handed over to the Senator of said county.

Therefore,

Whereas, John M. Wilhite, of the county of Jackson, drew Lot of Land, Number one hundred and eight, in the fifteenth District of Houston county; and a grant to said Lot, was issued to him on the first of April, 1837; and whereas Mark Womock, and Green Womock, of the county of Jones, as the orphans of William Womock, drew Lot Number two hundred and eighty-two, in the twelfth District of Early county, and the said Green Womock not knowing that they had drawn the same, afterwards gave in his name individually, in Buckhalters, District, Jones county, and drew said Lot, Number one hundred and eight, in the fifteenth District of Houston county; and whereas, said Green Womock being satisfied that his name was improperly given in, individually did, on the tenth day of March, relinquish to the State, all his right, title, interest, and claim to said Lot of Land; and whereas, by the inadvertent mistake or neglect of the several officers in the differ-et Executive Departments, the said Lot, Number one hundred eight in the fifteenth District of Houston county, was on the 26th of November, 1825, granted to said Green Womock, illegally, his relinquishment to the State being then of file in the Executive of-depts; and whereas an order of the 11th of December, 1833, said Number was put in the Cherokee Land Gold Lottery and drawn out to the name of said Wilhite, and a grant to the same issued to him as above set forth; and whereas the said Wilhite brought an action of Ejectment against the tenant therein possession of Lot Number one hundred and eight, in the fifteenth District of said Houston county, now Macon county, before the Superior Court of said county, and the action of said Ejectment was finally determined against said Wilhite by reason of illegality of the grant issued to Green Womock; and whereas the said Wilhite was put to great trouble and expense in prosecuting his claim in said action of ejectment:

16. Section I. Be it enacted, §e. That the sum of five hundred dollars be, and the same is hereby appropriated to compensate the said John M. Wilhite, of the county of Jackson, for the damages sustained by him in seeking to recover and establish his title to the Lot of Land in the above preamble described.

(No. 14.)

WHEREAS, A large portion of the people of the non-slaveholding States, have for many years past, shown in many ways, a fanatical spirit bitterly hostile to the Southern States, and have, through the instrumentality of incendiary publications, the pulpit, and the newspaper press, finally organized a political party for the avowed purpose of destroying the institution of slavery, and consequently spreading ruin and desolation among the people in every portion of the country where it exists. And,
Whereas, This spirit of fanaticism has allied itself with a design, long entertained by leading politicians of the North, to wield the taxing power of the Government for the purpose of protecting and fostering the interests of that section of the Union, and also to appropriate the common Territories of the United States to the exclusive use of Northern emigration, for the purpose of extending, consolidating, and rendering that power irreversible. And,

Whereas, These designs and movements have attained such ascendency, as to combine a large majority of the Northern people in this sectional party, which has elected to the Presidency and Vice-Presidency of the United States, candidates who are pledged in the most solemn form, and by the plainest, repeated declarations, to wield all the influence and power of the Federal Government to accomplish the objects and purposes of the party by which they have been elected. And,

Whereas, Many of the slaveholding States are about to assemble in Conventions for the purpose of adopting measures for the protection of their rights and the security of their institutions. And,

Whereas, The State of Mississippi has, in a noble spirit of fraternity, sent a Commissioner to communicate to this General Assembly her desire in this emergency in our federal relations. Therefore be it Resolved, 1st. That the General Assembly of Georgia has listened with sentiments of profound sympathy and respect to the message of Mississippi, on the subject of the present threatening relations of the Northern and Southern sections of the United States, communicated by her distinguished commissioner, the Hon. William L. Harris.

Resolved 2d. That, believing as we do that the present crisis in our national affairs demands resistance, this General Assembly, at its present session, has with great unanimity passed an Act providing for the call of a convention of the people of Georgia, to assemble on the 16th day of January, 1861, for the purpose of determining on the mode, measure and time of that resistance.

Resolved 3d. That we cordially respond to the patriotic hopes of Mississippi, so earnestly expressed by her Legislature, and so ably communicated by her commissioner; and we do hereby give to our sister State the confident assurance that, in our judgment, Georgia will promptly co-operate with her in the adoption of efficient measures for the common defense, safety and honor of the South.

Resolved 4th. That, should any or all of the Southern States determine in the present emergency to withdraw from the Union and resume their sovereignty, it is the sense of this General Assembly that such seceding States should form a confederacy under a republican form of government; and to that end they should adopt the Constitution of the United States, so altered and amended as to suit the new state of affairs.

Resolved 5th. That we do hereby express our cordial appreciation of the dignified and gentlemanly bearing of the Hon. William L. Harris towards this General Assembly, as well as the satisfac-
Session extended — Relative adjourning Courts during the holding of the Convention.

Resolved 6th. That his Excellency the Governor be, and he is, hereby requested to cause all the proceedings in the reception of the Commissioner from the State of Mississippi to be enrolled on parchment, signed by the officers of both Houses of the General Assembly, and by the Governor, with the seal of State attached thereto; and that the same be presented by him to the Hon. William L. Harris, as the response of Georgia to the friendly greeting of Mississippi.

Committee on the part of the Senate,

Committee on the part of the House of Representatives,

Assented to December 19th, 1860.

(No. 15.)

Resolved, by the General Assembly, That its session be extended to 5½ o'clock.

(No. 16.)

WHEREAS, the session of the approaching State Convention will be cotemporaneous with the sessions of certain Courts in this State, and whereas the lawyers, Judges and other officers of said Courts may be members of said Convention, and whereas it is important that the deliberations of said Convention shall not be interrupted by extraneous circumstances. Therefore,

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives, That it is the sense of this General Assembly that all such Courts should be adjourned, for the reasons aforesaid.

Assented to December 19th, 1860.
